Re: Shift Differential on Yards and Road Switcher

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Recently it has come to my attention that several members are claiming the shift differential payment on yard and road switcher assignments that are ordered for 0600. There is no entitlement to shift differential in this case.

The payment of shift differential under article 30.3 excludes arbitrary payments. Preparatory Time and Inspection Time are arbitrary payments. Under the heading, Section B, on page 211 item 1. Preparatory Time and Inspection Time referred to as (the 10 or 15 minutes) are defined as arbitrary payments.

Fraternally,

Paul Vickers
